Wed 15th July – Still Human Still Here – An Amnesty Waltham Forest Film Night with guest speaker

7.15pm @ Upstairs at Heathcote Arms, 344 Grove Green Road, Leytonstone, E11 4EA

Cost: £5

As part of the Leytonstone Festival 2009 Amnesty Waltham Forest has joined forces with the Leytonstone Film Club for a remarkable double-bill film screening with special guests, featuring British director Michael Winterbottom's critically acclaimed In This World (winner of the Golden Bear Best Film award at 2003 Berlin Film Festival) which follows the perilous journey to London undertaken by two Afghan refugees, as well as an exclusive screening of short film Birthday Boy, created as part of a programme run by Greenwich and Lewisham Young People's Theatre with young refugees and asylum seekers. Special guests include Marilynn Bonzo, who will speak of her extraordinary and often difficult experiences as a refugee from Zimbabwe. As well as providing a fantastic evening of entertainment, the night aims to highlight the 'Still Human Still Here' campaign, which is dedicated to bringing attention to the tens of thousands of refused asylum seekers currently destitute in the UK.

All proceeds will go to Amnesty Waltham Forest.
